Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If the period for reply specified above is less than thirty (30) days, a reply within the statutory minimum of thirty (30) days will be considered timely.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

Status

- 1) ☒ Responsive to communication(s) filed on 20 January 2004.
- 2a) ☐ This action is FINAL. 2b) ☒ This action is non-final.
- 3) ☐ Since this application is in condition for allowance except for formal matters, prosecution as to the merits is closed in accordance with the practice under Ex parte Quayle, 1935 C.D. 11, 453 O.G. 213.

Disposition of Claims

DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

2. Claims 1, 3, 5, 8, 9, and 10 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Pokrinchak, U. S. Patent 4,510,708.

With respect to claim 1, Pokrinchak teaches a film viewer comprising a housing 11 formed with a viewing window 13 for receiving films to be viewed and a film grip assembly 37 mounted on the housing adjacent the viewing window for holding films. Pokrinchak also teaches a lamp 19 disposed beneath the viewing window for illuminating the viewing window and an electrical power cord connected to a power source for providing electrical power to the lamp, wherein the housing is configured as a clipboard. Pokrinchak also teaches an automatic control circuit for switching the source of electrical power on whenever a film is inserted into the film grip assembly and turning off the source of electrical power when the film is removed. (See column 7, lines 4-21)

With respect to claim 3, the power cord is connected to AC power source.

With respect to claim 8, the film grip assembly includes a top plate 39 connected to the housing in a cantilever configuration defining a film receiving slot between the lip 40 of the plate 39 and the surface of the window 13.

With respect to claim 9, Pokrinchak teaches the top plate includes at least bosses and the film grip assembly includes plurality of balls 41 and spring 42 received the boss 38 configured such that the balls are biased toward the housing.

With respect to claim 10, the housing 11 has a flat bottom surface and is therefore configured to rest on a flat surface.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

3. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

4. Claim 7 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Pokrinchak in view of Hill, U. S. Patent 5,174,607. Hill teaches an illuminated clip board made of plastic. It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time this invention was made to construct the illuminated device taught by Pokrinchak of a plastic material as taught by Hill to provide a light weight and durable device.

5. Claims 2 and 3 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Pokrinchak in view of Abrams, U. S. Patent 4,751,615. Abrams teaches an illuminated clipboard utilizing either AC power or DC (battery) power. It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the this invention was made to construct the device taught by Pokrinchak adapted to use AC or DC power as taught by Abrams to provide a means to utilizing the device using electrical power supply in building or to make the device portable.

6. Claim 11 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Pokrinchak in view of Wright et al, U. S. Patent 4,751,620. Wright is cited to show an illuminated clipboard with a knob next to hasp 38 in figures 1 and 2. It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time this invention was made to construct the illuminated device taught by Pokrinchak with the knob taught by Wright to provide a means to hold when handling or moving the device.

7. Claims 5 and 6 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Pokrinchak, since the applicant does not disclose that the micro-switch or optical sensor solves any stated problem or is for any particular purpose, it appears that constructing the illuminated device the switch mechanism taught by Pokrinchak would perform equally well.

Allowable Subject Matter

8. Claim 12 is objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.
